Orders from non – EU member states:

If you want to order dangerous goods, we require the following:

- A copy of your import permit

The courier requires a statement from the recipient according to IATA regulations, that the recipient has permission from the national health authority to receive infectious or other biological materials.

Our reference materials are prepared using human blood and contain infectious agents. The intended use is for diagnostic purposes only.

It is the responsibility of the person ordering the goods to obtain permits/licenses needed to accompany the dispatch. These permits should be sent to PEI at the time of ordering.
